Policeman Controlling Traffic. He can stand in a perfect whirlpool of traffic and congest it for half-an-hour by a lifted hand. He conducts ladies and children over the crossings, curbs the fury of cyclists and hansomis, and is indifferent to the objurgations of omnibus drivers. Henley speaks of him

"With uplifted hand Conducting the orchestral Strand."

*I got my cycle down on Friday 11. Took a puncture in the front.
Took so I sent it up to the shop & if I give till Tuesday shall have it in I have had one letter from the G. P. about the race 12*
